

Nature's Pride Country White Wins in Rachael Ray Taste Test

Nature's Pride breads continue to win accolades — this time from a culinary expert! Nature's Pride Country White bread was named the "Best White" in a taste test in Every Day with Rachael Ray magazine's September issue. Our hearty White beat out the competition with its delicious taste and natural ingredients. One of the judges said it best: "The light, buttery-sweet flavor is like the white bread I remember from my childhood — only better."
